Thanks so much for this list, Jack. I am cc'ing Troy Miller at Metro regarding these opportunities.

Thanks again!
 Katie

It has already been shared and is going out on our social media platforms.

BTW – I have a few options for public presentation if Metro is available.

- Council meetings
 - 1st and 3rd Thursday at 7pm.
 - Some exceptions through the end of the year.
- 513 Relief Bus is here on Friday, November 14th
- Mayor's Community Brunch, Saturday, March 7th at 10am
- Silverton Block Watch Association, 2nd Mondays at 6pm

Let me know if any or all of that is possible.

Hello Jack and Meredith,

Are you able to forward this email to Silverton's elected officials? I do not have their email addresses. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks so much,
Katie

Hello,

Please see the invitation below from Troy Miller, Director of Government Affairs at Cincinnati Metro.

We're excited to announce the MetroNow! Blue Ash/Montgomery Zone—an expansion of Metro's popular on-demand transit that makes local trips simple, affordable, and reliable. Please join regional leaders, business partners, and community members to celebrate.

Launch Celebration

WHEN:

Monday, October 27, 2025
10:00 a.m.

WHERE:

Summit Park | East Entrance

4335 Glendale Milford Rd, Blue Ash, OH 45242

You'll hear from:

- Blake Ethridge - Chair, Metro Board of Directors
- Andy Aiello – CEO, Metro
- Denise Driehaus – Hamilton County Commission President
- Jill Cole – Mayor, Blue Ash

About MetroNow! Zone 4:

The new zone extends service to Blue Ash, Montgomery, Silverton, Kenwood, and Deer Park, connecting more residents to jobs, schools, shopping, and essential services.

MetroNow! is an innovative on-demand transit service using shuttle-style vehicles to provide convenient transportation in areas with limited public transit. Riders can easily book trips within designated zones through the app or by phone, just like Uber or Lyft, for only $2.50 per ride.

We hope you are able to join us on Monday. Please reach out to me if you have any questions.
